

April 8, 1996 ①

Dear Grandma,

It was so good to see you. I love you so much! I have so many great memories of the visits to Walnut Grove. You and Grandpa taught me so much. Grandpa was such a strong, gentle person. One time for school I had to do a report on the depression and Grandpa helped me, he told me about things he remembered and the hardships of growing up during those years. I'll always remember the rides in the milk truck, the tours he took us on, the "pixies" at walts. I'll never forget how small the walnut plants were and how big the trees are now. Grandpa was so proud of his community and gave so much to people - never complaining or expecting anything in return. Grandma you taught me to stand up for what you believe in and stand by the one ^② you love. You were the ideal role model. From the time you got up til you went to bed you worked so hard to give the best of yourself. a simple meal is a feast, I never met anyone that can cook like you.

You were always on the move. The best part of all though was when I ~~you~~ was a little girl and you'd hold me on your lap and hug me and kiss me. It was wonderful to be loved by you! Thank you so much. God couldn't have given me better grandparents! We hope to see you this summer Bret and the kids send their love.

Love, Mavi ♡

P.S. Thank you for the special things you gave me when I was there I'll always cherish them!

